culture of the people of Belize.
Welcome and enjoy!

BEAT 1: RAINFOREST

SARAH

I have kind of--kind of a racist question to ask?

GUIDE

Um, go right ahead.

SARAH

I've heard that sometimes Belize can be very unsafe. That sometimes people get kidnapped?

GUIDE

Oh no. Belize is very safe. I assure you, no one will be kidnapped, sold into sexual slavery, or murdered.

SARAH

That's incredibly specific.

GUIDE

Look out your window now! There's so many trees! The magic of Belize is everywhere!

KECHI

I'm sorry--I can't get past the murder thing? Has that happened before?

GUIDE

Oh look, the magical Scarlet macaw!
They come out of hiding just once every 10 years.

CODY

That's just not true. They're rare, but not...hibernators.

GUIDE

THEY ARE SO MAJESTIC EVERYONE LOOK AT THE MACAW.

BEAT 2: HARBOR STREET

CODY

Does that bird have a shiv--

GUIDE

--MOVING out of the jungle, we're approaching the lovely Harbor Street. A local hub for commerce and recreation.

GABE

What kinds of...safe activities...are there to do in Belize?

GUIDE

Well I'm glad you asked sir, you could rent a boat and explore the Belize Barrier Reef. You could even discover the mysteries of the ancient Mayan Ruins!

GABE

Huh...It kind of looks like people just spray paint everything and stand around menacingly.

NOA

Is...weapon manufacturing big here?
They all look like they have weapons...

GUIDE

No no no, mostly we just explore the reef and discover the ruins.
You can all relax, you will not be beaten over the head with a blackjack and have your Mastercard stolen anywhere around here (To Driver) Hurry up!

BEAT 3: THE HARBOR

GABE

I hadn't even considered that a possibility.

GUIDE

And here we have harbor street's eponymous harbor. From fishing vessels to tradeships, you can find them all here. Soak up our wonderful coastal culture!

KECHI

What's in those ships?

GUIDE

Well, while Belize exports a large amount of oil and petroleum products, we're also known for our sugar cane and bananas!

MOLLY

What about all those sad looking women in that cargo container?

GUIDE

Oh..uh, ignore them. They're...inspectors. Yup. Inspecting the cargo containers' contents. We only export the very best!

MOLLY

There's an awful lot of them to be inspectors.

GUIDE

Belizean quality standards are very very high.

MOLLY

Oh god, one of them is waving a tiny American flag. She's screaming something--I can just barely make it out. "OH--God--Help--Me."

GUIDE

We're going to move on to the end of our tour, the wonderful La Cunta end at which you'll be staying for the night.

KECHI La...Quinta?

GUIDE
Sure.

BEAT 4: LA QUINTA

SARAH
I would feel a lot safer back on the ship.

KECHI
Yeah, can't we go back?

GUIDE
Belize-Louise guys, don't you want to take in the culture of another country?

NOA
That's not even a La Quinta. It says La Cunta

GUIDE
Oh, that's just the Belizean Creole spelling.

GABE
There's dead bodies everywhere!

GUIDE
They're sleeping outside to see the stars!

MOLLY
Those little girls are chained together!

Belizean girl scouts!

KECHI
That man just shouted "I am a human trafficker"

GUIDE
It's just his accent!

SARAH
But the official language of Belize is English!

GUIDE

Oh fine, I give up - you win.
You're just a bunch of Bullies
(belize)

CODY

We're all gonna die, aren't we.

GUIDE

Oh, of course you are.
